Phil Crosby – single

(Born on July 13, 1934 – 2004) Phillip Crosby and his twin brother Dennis Crosby were born in Los Angeles, California. After attending a strict, Jesuit-run boarding school south of San Francisco, Phil served a stint in the Army in the mid-1950s and attended what is now Washington State University in Pullman, where he was a guard on the football team. He had a not so well-known carrier as singer. Has sung with his Dad – Bing – and his three brothers.
